

Career Mapping

Having completed a behavioural profile may be a good starting point, followed by Jiig-cal assessment will enable you better to explore and focus on specific areas of employment in The Job Guide.

It is wise to investigate jobs that are related to your most favoured job choice. This enables you to be more flexible. For example:

Goal Setting

It is essential that you take every opportunity to involve yourself in extra curricular activities during your years of formal schooling. Also, at weekends: music, drama, debating, youth group involvement and sport. Part time employment is most advantageous. Utilise every opportunity that comes your way.
